

Hello Friends!

Have you noticed me behind the bar? I am one of the oldest bars in the area, dating back to the early 1900s, when I was a permanent fixture at the Last Chance Saloon on Lancaster's Main Street. Thirsty patrons would arrive by horse and buggy, and belly up to the bar for a shot of whisky or other legal libations. As Ohio entered the Prohibition Era, I served less intoxicating Coca-Cola and lemonade. Perhaps these non-alcoholic beverages weren't as popular as whiskey, because I was involuntarily moved into storage.

In 1936, local resident Johnny Johnson discovered me in a barn in Pleasantville, and I soon became part of the new Johnny Johnson's Restaurant at this Cherry Street location. Over the next 46 years, I made so many friends and was always around when ever anyone needed me.

In 1982, Alan and Rosie Snead adopted me and my home, and reopened as Snead's Restaurant. I served fewer libations during that time and more home-cooked meals. In 2002, the Bibler family took me in and re-named us Bib's Eastside Restaurant. It was so nice to see our guests rush in for Bib's famous corn cakes.

After working non-stop for 77 years, I finally was able to take a rest for a few years. Then one day, I heard footsteps in the kitchen. It was Billy & Lorena Smith. They fell in love w/ me and wanted to bring me back to life. They even hooked me up w/ a hot new front bar. We make a great pair, don't you think? I feel good enough to go another 100 years. I must say I am having a great time re-kindling old relationships and as well as making so many new ones.

So welcome to the Cherry Street Pub, where it really is all about me!

Cheers,
